Hello there.

I'm Colin Tipping — The Radical Forgiveness Guy.

As you may or may not know, Radical Forgiveness has helped thousands of people heal their past and become more effective in dealing with their present — but I really feel that the time has now come to convert the Radical Forgiveness technology into a way of creating the abundant future that people really want. Wouldn't you like more power over your life?

Who doesn't want more abundance, more happiness, harmony and peace in their life? We all do, and we want to create a better world too, for our children and grandchildren.

Radical Empowerment arises naturally out of Radical Forgiveness because it is based on the same philosophy. It uses the same kind of tools and employs the same kind of intelligence --- spiritual intelligence. It raises your vibration to the point where creating the life that you want becomes easy and natural.

On the next page, is a longer video in which I reveal what is in my Radical Empowerment Program, explain the purpose of each item in the kit and show how the program actually works. Join me there, please.

Just for interest though, and before you go there, click on the "more info" link directly below this screen. This will take you to a page where you will be invited to take a simple little quiz to see what might be stopping you from having it all now. You'll find that fascinating I think.

After that, and if you need further convincing, click on the link in the left menu that offers the four free lessons in Radical Manifestation. These will be e-mailed to you over the next four days. By the time you have done all four lessons, and taken the quiz on the next page, you will have a very strong sense of what this is all about and why depriving yourself of my Radical Empowerment program would be a serious mistake and a withholding of love from yourself.

So, that said, I'll see you on the next page in just a moment.

Thank you.
